

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program • Under Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI & VII), and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, the Department prohibits discrimination in admissions, programs, services, activities, or employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, and disability. The Department must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service or activity. For example, this means if necessary, the Department must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that the Department will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible. REHABILITATION SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

WHAT IS THE VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM?

The Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Program provides a variety of services to individuals with disabilities, with the ultimate goal to prepare for, enter into, or retain employment. The VR program is a public program funded through a Federal/State partnership and administered by the Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA), which is part of the Arizona Department of Economic Security (DES).

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR VR SERVICES?

Eligibility requirements for the VR program are as follows:

- Having a documented disability
- Having a disability which presents a barrier to employment
- Having the potential and desire to work
- Needing services in order to work

WHAT ARE THE VR SERVICES AN ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUAL MAY RECEIVE?

Based on individual needs and informed choice, eligible individuals may receive the following types of services:

- Assessment to determine eligibility and VR needs
- Vocational guidance and counseling
- Training
- Work site evaluations
- Job development
- Job placement services
- Rehabilitation technology services and devices
- Other support services

Based on the individual's available resources, the Rehabilitation Services Administration may require an eligible individual to pay for some services.
